DRAFT CITATION

Points to note:

- The draft citation is not to exceed 300 words (unless exceptional circumstances).
 - The citation will be read out when the award is presented, so it should be written with this in mind.
 - As only Red Cross service is relevant, do not include other activities undertaken by this person for outside organisations.
 - Avoid references to "I" (eg I have seen or I believe), the citation should be written in the 3rd person (eg Barbara has assisted with the ...)
 - Address the criteria
 - a) Evidence of exemplary service of a commendable nature or over a lengthy period of time (exceeding 12 months) outside Australia carried out on behalf of Australian Red Cross.
 - b) Nominees may include Aid Workers who, on behalf of Australian Red Cross, have worked on projects organised by Australian Red Cross or an overseas Red Cross or Red Crescent Society or the ICRC or the Federation: This may include persons who have given service on one or more overseas field placements either in conflict relief, natural disaster relief or within a development project.
 - c) The foregoing should not be seen as exhaustive and are offered as examples only.
