

Become a Red Cross member and Champion Humanity

the power of humanity

What is Red Cross membership?

Membership is being part of a humanitarian movement, and sharing humanitarian values.

Membership is caring, people helping other people.

Membership is local action to build stronger communities.

Why does membership matter?

As a member you:

- Live by humanitarian values.
- Learn and be a voice and advocate.
- Help Red Cross connect with your community and networks to gain support.
- Take humanitarian action in ways that work for you and your community.

Why Red Cross?

Red Cross is unique because we are there for people in need, regardless of nationality, race, religious belief, class or political opinion. We are impartial, neutral and independent, and we respond to crises large and small, from major disasters to personal emergencies in Australia and further afield.

How can you be involved?

- Champion our humanitarian work in your local community
- Join (or start) a Red Cross group to meet people and run community events
- Connect online by following us on social media and sharing our stories
- Raise money for our humanitarian work by joining campaigns or getting together to run an event
- Volunteer in your local area or with one of the many programs Red Cross runs around Australia
- Learn more including through access to Red Cross training
- Shape our organisation by having a say in the future of Red Cross and how it is run
