Rent and Utilities

Tenants Union NSW: Renting & Coronavirus: What you need to know

- Can my landlord evict me during this crisis?
- Can my landlord continue with inspections, including open homes?
- I have lost income, what can I do?
- I'm trying to negotiate a rent reduction. My landlord wants a lot of personal info?
- Even if the landlord agreed to reduce rent, I can’t afford to continue renting this property. I would like to break my lease early and move out – can I do this?
- I’m having trouble with other household bills, what can I do?
- I am supposed to be at Tribunal, should I still go? What will happen to my case?
- I am an international student and affected by the travel ban. What can I do?
- I'm in public or community housing. Will my rent go up due to increasing social support payments?
- Does the COVID19 crisis change any of my rights or obligations?
- Can I move house during the current gathering/movement restrictions in NSW?
- Many people in our community are finding it hard to cope at this time. What else can we do?
- Rent Reduction Template Letter (in English only)
- NSW Eviction Moratorium – An Explainer

Western Sydney Tenants Union – (02) 8833 0933.

Eviction Moratorium

- The NSW Government implemented the federally announced 6 month Evictions Moratorium in two steps: (1) an interim 60 day stop on all evictions for rental arrears where the renting household has been financially impacted by COVID-19. The stop commences 15 April and is in place for 60 days from then; and (2) after the 60 day stop, restrictions on evictions for rental arrears for COVID-19 impacted tenants will apply for 6 months. A landlord will only be able to apply for eviction for rental arrears if they can show they:
  - attempted to negotiate a rent reduction with the tenant in good faith
  - if informal negotiations failed, that the tenant and landlord have attempted mediated rent reduction negotiations through the Fair Trading dispute resolution process
  - and that the eviction is fair and reasonable in the circumstances of the specific case.

Energy and Water Ombudsman NSW has more information about customer assistance / hardship programs, and range of useful resources you may be eligible for if you are facing financial difficulties.

Energy Accounts Payment Assistance (EAPA)

- EAPA is a NSW Government Scheme designed to help people who are having trouble paying their home electricity and/or gas bill because of a crisis or emergency situation. The $50 EAPA vouchers are distributed to electricity and gas customers by a range of community welfare organisations.
- Where to find EAPA: list of NSW Government EAPA distributors
- Before you seek assistance
- If you are having trouble paying your bill, speak to your energy company first. If you are unable to make arrangements with your supplier, contact a local community agency that distributes EAPA vouchers to make an appointment.
- If you can't get an appointment right away, let your supplier know you made an appointment for EAPA assessment. Your supplier is not allowed to disconnect you if they know you have an appointment booked for an EAPA assessment.

Who can get EAPA?
- If you are in financial hardship due to a crisis or emergency situation you can apply for EAPA voucher assistance.

Water Payment Assistance Scheme (PAS) Credits
PAS can help you if you are having difficulty paying your Hunter Water, Sydney Water or Shoalhaven Water bill. This scheme assists people experiencing financial hardship by providing credit to a water account.

Before you seek assistance
- If you are having trouble paying your bill you should speak to your water company first. Water suppliers may be able to suggest a payment scheme or arrangement to assist you manage your bills (see customer assistance programs).

Where can you get water credits?
Many community welfare organisations offer PAS. These include:
- St Vincent de Paul Society
- The Salvation Army
- Anglicare
- The Smith Family
- Some community or neighbourhood centres.
If you can't find a PAS agency in your area, contact us for help.

Who can get water credits?
Anyone who is in financial hardship can apply for PAS assistance. The hardship may be caused by a range or combination of factors.

What about tenants?
- Although the landlord is responsible for the water account, in many cases it is a condition of the lease for tenants to pay for the cost of water consumption. If you are responsible for this part of the water bill, you may be eligible for PAS.
- Access to PAS for tenants is limited to $150 for water usage. As PAS cannot be used to put an account in credit, the landlord should not pay the entire bill in advance if you want to use PAS credit. As this is a private arrangement between you and your landlord or real estate agent, speak to them first if you are facing financial difficulty.

Holroyd Community Aid Incorporated

Health and Medical Care

- Call the National Coronavirus Health Information Line on 1800 020 080 for general advice or if you have symptoms. If you require translating or interpreting services, call 131 450.

- COVID19 - What if I don’t have Medicare?

  o Most people that are not eligible for Medicare will have health or travel insurance. For those that do not have adequate insurance coverage, NSW Health will waive these costs. This includes the waiving of payment and debt recovery procedures for ambulance transfers of people suspected to have COVID-19 infection, who are taken to NSW Health facilities for assessment.

- As of October 2009, asylum-seekers that are not Medicare-eligible can have their fees waived for some public health services in NSW. These services are:

  o emergency care for acute medical and surgical conditions, including admission
  o some elective surgery (for conditions listed as Clinical Priority Categories 1 & 2)
  o ambulatory and outpatient care required to maintain health status of asylum seekers with acute and chronic health conditions (eg diabetes) maternity services, including pregnancy care, delivery, and post-natal care mental health services (inpatient and community based). (See NSW Health)

- The Refugee Health Guide includes Refugee Health Programs staffed by refugee nurses, doctors and other specialists that operate nationally - providing specialised mental and primary health care and service coordination to refugees and people seeking asylum. These services are familiar with working with people on uncertain immigration pathways and fluctuating Medicare status. Information on referral pathways in New South Wales can be found here. Services are defined differently in each state and territory, so look for headings such as ‘Refugee Health Program/ Service’, ‘Immigrant Health Clinic’ or ‘Community Health Service’.

- Reciprocal Health Care Agreements: Agreements with 11 countries that covers the cost of medically necessary care when Australians visit certain countries and visitors from these countries visit Australia. Those visiting Australia from the following countries may be eligible for medical care under Medicare while in Australia, information for each country is available here.
