How to contact TIAS: Free Call 1800 060 462

- South Australia Bills and Energy Assistance:

Use the concession finder or phone the ConcessionsSA Hotline on 1800 307 758 to see if you are eligible for a state government concession. Energy-related concessions include:
- Energy bill concession
- Medical heating and cooling concession
- Cost of living concession

Hardship programs for people with financial difficulties

- If you are experiencing temporary or long-term financial difficulties, you should tell your retailer as soon as possible and ask to enter their hardship program.
- All energy retailers in South Australia must have programs available for customers who are experiencing financial hardship.
- If you are a hardship customer, the National Energy Customer Framework says that your retailer must offer you a payment plan that takes into account:
  - your capacity to pay
  - any debt you owe to the retailer
  - your expected energy consumption over the following 12 month period.
- Access to a hardship team cannot be denied - If the customer service staff member is unaware of the company’s hardship program or is not allowing access to the appropriate team, ask to speak with a manager. If the request is refused, contact the Energy and Water Ombudsman SA (EWOSA).

Health and Medical Care

- SA COVID-19 Information Line - 1800 253 787 offers local information and advice on general COVID-19 information for South Australians. Operates from 8:00 am to 8:00 pm every day.

- What if I’m not eligible for Medicare?
  - Overseas travellers who fall ill in Australia (and are not eligible for Medicare) often have health or travel insurance. For those who do not have insurance, South Australian hospitals will waive the costs of diagnosis and treatment of coronavirus (COVID-19). This includes waiving payment and debt recovery procedures for ambulance transfers of people suspected to have COVID-19, who are taken to South Australian hospitals for assessment. These arrangements have been put in place to ensure payment issues are not a barrier for people from overseas with symptoms seeking early medical advice.

- SA Refugee Health Service - People seeking asylum can access limited medical care.

- The Refugee Health Guide includes Refugee Health Programs staffed by refugee nurses, doctors and other specialists that operate nationally, providing specialised mental and primary health care and service coordination to refugees and people seeking asylum. These services are familiar working with people on uncertain immigration pathways and fluctuating Medicare status. Information on referral pathways in South Australia can be found here. Services are defined differently in each state and territory, so look for headings such as ‘Refugee Health Program/ Service’, ‘Immigrant Health Clinic’ or ‘Community Health Service’.

- Reciprocal Health Care Agreements: Agreements with 11 countries that covers the cost of medically necessary care when Australians visit certain countries and visitors from these countries visit Australia. Those visiting Australia from the following countries may be eligible for medical care under Medicare while in Australia, information for each country is available here.

- Temporary Visa Categories Covered by Ministerial Orders (eligible for Medicare)
Employment & Work Rights

All workers in Australia have the same rights and protections at work, regardless of citizenship or visa status. Your employer must comply with Australian workplace and immigration laws, including their obligation to:

- pay you the right pay rate for all time worked
- provide a safe workplace.
- For information on working in Australia visit the Home Affairs website.

The Fair Work Ombudsman provides education, assistance, advice and guidance to employers and employees, and can inquire into and investigate breaches of the Fair Work Act.

The Working Women’s Centre SA Inc (WWC SA) is a non-government organisation that provides free and confidential information, advice and representation to vulnerable workers residing in South Australia about their rights at work.
