

COVID-19 Information Sheet - South Australia (SA)

Disclaimer: The information below should not be considered an exhaustive list and service delivery may change. Please contact organisations and services directly for the most up to date information and to enquire further about eligibility. Red Cross does not determine eligibility for the third party services listed.

South Australia Government Updates

- For the most up to date information on travel and border restrictions, and other public health advice, visit the SA government website. The website includes information on:
 - Activities and gatherings, including the health advice for face masks.
 - Business restrictions and closures.
 - Travel to and from South Australia, and quarantine arrangements.
- COVID-19 vaccinations: SA Health is working closely with the Australian Government Department of Health to deliver COVID-19 vaccinations in South Australia in line with the Vaccine Roadmap announced by the Federal Government. For information on the SA vaccination program, including in languages other than English, visit the South Australian government website.
- The Pandemic Leave Disaster Payment is available to people in South Australia on temporary visas who have a visa with work rights. Other financial support for individuals are available on the SA government's COVID-19 website.
- To check your eligibility for the Pandemic Leave Disaster Payment call 180 22 66. If you are eligible, Services Australia (Centrelink) staff can assist you to complete an application over the phone. You must also meet other criteria including any of the following:
 - You have coronavirus (COVID-19)
 - You have been in close contact with a person who has COVID-19
 - You care for a child, 16 years or under, who has COVID-19
 - You care for a child, 16 years or under, who's been in close contact with a person who has COVID-19
 - You are caring for someone who has COVID-19
 - You are unable to go to work and earn an income
 - You have no appropriate leave entitlements, including pandemic sick leave, personal leave or leave to care for another person
- The SA government has endorsed a number of initiatives aimed at helping landlords and tenants whose incomes have been affected by COVID-19. These initiatives will be in place until 31 May 2021, or 28 days after all relevant declarations relating to COVID-19 have ceased – whichever comes first. The measures aim to:
 - institute a short-term moratorium on eviction for non-payment of rent due to severe rental distress as a result of COVID-19;
 - prevent landlords from increasing rent, where the tenant is suffering financial hardship due to COVID-19;
 - extend the tenant's ability to arrange to have repairs carried out by agreement with the landlord;
 - provide a general protection for tenants who breach their agreement as a result of complying with a direction under law relating to COVID-19.

How to stay COVID safe

- With the relaxing of restrictions, and opening of state and some international borders, Australian governments are encouraging everyone to remain COVID safe.

Physical distancing

- When and where possible, remain 1.5 metres away from other people.
- Avoid physical greetings such as handshaking, hugs and kisses.
- Take extra care if you are using public transport.
- Avoid crowds and large public gatherings.
- Wear a mask when in public.

Workplaces & schools

- Follow the recommended government health and hygiene advice.
- Avoid non-essential face-to-face meetings.
- Provide alcohol-based hand rub for all staff.
- Eat lunch at your desk or outside rather than in the lunchroom.
- Regularly clean and disinfect surfaces that many people touch.
- Open windows or adjust air conditioning for more ventilation.
- Stay at home if you are feeling unwell.

Employment & Work Rights

- From 01 May 2021, if you relocate to take up ongoing work, including an apprenticeship, for more than 20 hours a week for more than six months, you may be eligible to receive up to:
 - $3,000 if you relocate to a capital city*
 - $6,000 if you relocate to a regional area
 - An extra $3,000 if you relocate with a dependent.

For more information on Relocation Assistance, visit the Australian Government's Department of Education, Skills & Employment website here.

- Temporary relaxation of working hours for student visa holders

Due to exceptional circumstances during the COVID-19 pandemic and the need to ensure the supply of critical services, the Department of Home Affairs and Australian Border Force will take a flexible approach to student visa holders working beyond their usual work limitations, but only in specified industries.

You can work more than 40 hours a fortnight if you are:

- employed by an aged care Approved Provider or Commonwealth-funded aged care service provider with a RACS ID or a NAPS ID, before 8 September 2020
- employed by a registered National Disability Insurance Scheme provider
- enrolled in a health care related course and you are supporting the health effort against COVID-19, as directed by health officials.

You cannot work more than 40 hours if you are employed in a supermarket.

All workers in Australia have the same rights and protections at work, regardless of citizenship or visa status. Your employer must comply with Australian workplace and immigration laws, including their obligation to:

- Pay you the right pay rate for all time worked
- Provide a safe workplace.
- For information on working in Australia visit the Home Affairs website.

The Fair Work Ombudsman provides education, assistance, advice and guidance to employers and employees, and can inquire into and investigate breaches of the Fair Work Act.

Hardship programs for people with financial difficulties

- If you are experiencing temporary or long-term financial difficulties, you should tell your retailer as soon as possible and ask to enter their hardship program.
- All energy retailers in South Australia must have programs available for customers who are experiencing financial hardship.
- If you are a hardship customer, the National Energy Customer Framework says that your retailer must offer you a payment plan that takes into account:
 - your capacity to pay
 - any debt you owe to the retailer
 - your expected energy consumption over the following 12 month period

Access to a hardship team cannot be denied – if the customer service staff member is unaware of the company's hardship program or is not allowing access to the appropriate team, ask to speak with a manager. If the request is refused, contact the Energy and Water Ombudsman SA (EWOSA).

Housing / Homelessness

- COVID-19 Relief Call Centre – 1300 705 336 provides information and assistance with such things as personal hardship support, accommodation support for people unable to achieve self-quarantining and accommodation for emergency services personnel that are required to quarantine but unable to do so at home. Information for New Zealanders living in Australia

New Zealand citizens in Australia on a Special Category Visa (SCV) may be able to access a range of payments, depending on their circumstances.

- Those who came to Australia prior to 26 February 2001 generally have protected status and have the same access to all Australian payments as permanent residents and Australian citizens, where eligible, including JobSeeker Payment.
- New Zealanders who came to Australia after 26 February 2001 and have non-protected status can access family payments, such as FTB, paid parental leave payments and childcare subsidy, where eligible. If they have been continuously living in Australia for at least 10 years since February 2001, they can also access JobSeeker Payment or Youth Allowance for a one-off period of up to six months.
- New Zealanders on an SCV may be eligible for the JobKeeper Payment if they meet the qualifying criteria, <https://treasury.gov.au/coronavirus/jobkeeper>.
- New Zealand citizens may also be able to claim the Age Pension or, in limited circumstances, Disability Support Pension or Carer Payment, under the Social Security Agreement between Australia and New Zealand.
