

COVID-19 Information Sheet – Northern Territory (NT)

Disclaimer: The information below should not be considered an exhaustive list. Please contact organisations and services directly for the most up to date information and to enquire further about eligibility. Red Cross does not make any determinations about eligibility for any of the third-party services listed.

Northern Territory Government Updates

- Northern Territory Government Coronavirus homepage – for updates on border restrictions, quarantine, testing sites, vaccinations, and public gatherings.
- COVID-19 vaccinations: Most Territorians will receive the vaccine in the second half of the year. Until then it is important to continue practising good hygiene, physical distancing, staying at home when sick and getting tested when displaying any symptoms. For more information on vaccinations in the Northern Territory, visit the NT government website. Vaccine information is also available in languages other than English.
- There remain strict border controls in place for all interstate and international arrivals to the Northern Territory. All arrivals to the Northern Territory (NT) must:
 - Fill in a Border Entry Form
 - Complete 14 days of mandatory supervised quarantine at your own expense*, if you have recently been in an active declared COVID-19 hotspot. Click this link for further information on current hotspots around the country.
 - For information on remote work and other travel conditions, check the updates on the Northern Territory government website.

How to stay COVID safe

- With the relaxing of restrictions, and opening of state and some international borders, Australian governments are encouraging everyone to remain COVID safe.

Physical distancing

- When and where possible, remain 1.5 metres away from other people.
- Avoid physical greetings such as handshaking, hugs and kisses.
- Take extra care if you are using public transport.
- Avoid crowds and large public gatherings.
- Wear a mask when in public.

Workplaces & schools

- Follow the recommended government health and hygiene advice.
- Avoid non-essential face-to-face meetings.
- Provide alcohol-based hand rub for all staff.
- Eat lunch at your desk or outside rather than in the lunchroom.
- Regularly clean and disinfect surfaces that many people touch
- Open windows or adjust air conditioning for more ventilation
- Stay at home if you are feeling unwell.

Employment & Work Rights

- From 01 May 2021, if you relocate to take up ongoing work, including an apprenticeship, for more than 20 hours a week for more than six months, you may be eligible to receive up to:
 - $3,000 if you relocate to a capital city*
 - $6,000 if you relocate to a regional area
 - An extra $3,000 if you relocate with a dependent.

For more information on Relocation Assistance, visit the Australian Government's Department of Education, Skills & Employment website here.

- Temporary relaxation of working hours for student visa holders

Due to exceptional circumstances during the COVID-19 pandemic and the need to ensure the supply of critical services, the Department of Home Affairs and Australian Border Force will take a flexible approach to student visa holders working beyond their usual work limitations, but only in specified industries.

You can work more than 40 hours a fortnight if you are:

- employed by an aged care Approved Provider or Commonwealth-funded aged care service provider with a RACS ID or a NAPS ID, before 8 September 2020
- employed by a registered National Disability Insurance Scheme provider
- enrolled in a health care related course and you are supporting the health effort against COVID-19, as directed by health officials.

You cannot work more than 40 hours if you are employed in a supermarket.

All workers in Australia have the same rights and protections at work, regardless of citizenship or visa status. Your employer must comply with Australian workplace and immigration laws, including their obligation to:

- Pay you the right pay rate for all time worked
- Provide a safe workplace.
- For information on working in Australia visit the Home Affairs website.

The Fair Work Ombudsman provides education, assistance, advice and guidance to employers and employees, and can inquire into and investigate breaches of the Fair Work Act.

Ignite Potential specialises in settlement, employment, training and social enterprise opportunities. For more information on their services and programs, visit their website.

Housing / Homelessness

Renting in the NT: The COVID-19 pandemic and the resulting restrictions has resulted in the NT Government examining the Residential Tenancies Act 1999 and the Business Tenancies (Fair Dealings) Act 2003 to assist renters remaining in their rental properties for the duration of this crisis.

Currently all parties have a responsibility to work together to sustain tenancies to keep people in their homes/businesses. NT Consumer Affairs strongly encourages any renters who are experiencing financial distress due to the pandemic and cannot pay their rent, to contact their property owner or manager to negotiate a solution as soon as possible.

Information for New Zealanders living in Australia

New Zealand citizens in Australia on a Special Category Visa (SCV) may be able to access a range of payments, depending on their circumstances.

- Those who came to Australia prior to 26 February 2001 generally have protected status and have the same access to all Australian payments as permanent residents and Australian citizens, where eligible, including JobSeeker Payment.
- New Zealanders who came to Australia after 26 February 2001 and have non-protected status can access family payments, such as FTB, paid parental leave payments and childcare subsidy, where eligible. If they have been continuously living in Australia for at least 10 years since February 2001, they can also access JobSeeker Payment or Youth Allowance for a one-off period of up to six months.
- New Zealanders on an SCV may be eligible for the JobKeeper Payment if they meet the qualifying criteria, <https://treasury.gov.au/coronavirus/jobkeeper>.
- New Zealand citizens may also be able to claim the Age Pension or, in limited circumstances, Disability Support Pension or Carer Payment, under the Social Security Agreement between Australia and New Zealand.
- For further general information:
