COVID-19 Household utilities and concessions

- Households already receiving the Utilities Concession will receive an additional $200 rebate through their electricity bill. This will be automatically applied to the next electricity bill in June or July 2020. You do not need to contact your electricity supplier.
- Eligibility: Centrelink Pensioner Concession Card holders, Centrelink Low Income Health Care Card holders and Veteran’s Affairs Pensioner Concession Card or Gold Card holders.
- The government will also contribute up to $250,000 to a new fund to assist households severely impacted by COVID-19. Details on how the fund will operate will be determined in consultation with electricity retailers, who will asked to make a co-contribution in order to access the fund.

Care and Financial Counselling Service provides financial counselling support which may be of assistance to individuals who are struggling to pay rent or utilities.
Health and Medical Care

- COVID-19 – access to medical care
  The ACT Government has announced that during the COVID-19 pandemic, Medicare ineligible people requiring testing, treatment or other public health supports related to COVID-19 will have free access to medical care. This includes pathology, diagnostic, pharmaceutical and outpatient care in the ACT public health system.

- People seeking asylum have the same access as Health Care Card holders, to public dental and community health services, with the possibility of incurring a cost. See: https://www.companionhouse.org.au/asylum-seekers/

- Companion House Assisting Survivors of Torture and Trauma. In addition to torture and trauma counselling, Companion House provides general practice and primary health services for refugees usually for the first 12 months in Australia or longer if assessed as needing ongoing services from Companion House. The Medical service is also used by asylum seekers and people from refugee backgrounds with complex needs. Phone: 02 6251 4550

- The Refugee Health Guide includes programs staffed by refugee nurses, doctors and other specialists that operate nationally - providing specialised mental and primary health care and service coordination to refugees and people seeking asylum. These services are familiar with working with people on uncertain immigration pathways and fluctuating Medicare status. Information on referral pathways in Australian Capital Territory can be found here. Services are defined differently in each state and territory, so look for headings such as ‘Refugee Health Program/Service’, ‘Immigrant Health Clinic’ or ‘Community Health Service’.

- Reciprocal Health Care Agreements: Agreements with 11 countries that covers the cost of medically necessary care for visitors in Australia. Those visiting Australia from the following countries may be eligible for medical care under Medicare while in Australia, information for each country is available here.

- Temporary Visa Categories Covered by Ministerial Orders (eligible for Medicare)

Employment & Work Rights

All workers in Australia have the same rights and protections at work, regardless of citizenship or visa status. Your employer must comply with Australian workplace and immigration laws, including their obligation to:

- pay you the right pay rate for all time worked
- provide a safe workplace.
- For information on working in Australia visit the Home Affairs website.

The Fair Work Ombudsman provides education, assistance, advice and guidance to employers and employees, and can inquire into and investigate breaches of the Fair Work Act.
Information for the LGBTQI+ community
