

Thank you!

Together we donated bags of clothing to the Red Cross shops which have a re sale value of $

Red Cross will use the money raised to support Red Cross teams on the ground in Australia and across the Asia Pacific. The money may help them make daily welfare phone calls to older folks who are isolated, support communities recovering from a disaster, welcome families making a new life in Australia after years in a refugee camp, and so much more.

Thank you again!