

Exclusive invitation to be a Founding Member of Rising Women Leaders

On behalf of Australian Red Cross Society, we are delighted to invite you to become a Founding Member of Rising Women Leaders (RWL). RWL is a volunteer group of the Australian Red Cross Society, modelled upon a circle of giving and forms a collective of committed female leaders and philanthropists who work together to advance the mission of Australian Red Cross. This giving circle will play an important role in developing young women to become leaders and philanthropists in the humanitarian sector by providing them with a community of like-minded women, leadership and collective-giving opportunities to effect change.

As a Founding Member, you would have the privilege of exclusively holding the title of Founding Member with your name listed in the RWL Terms of Reference and to advocate the work of Australian Red Cross and the RWL giving circle to your peers and professional networks.

To accept the offer of Founding Member, we invite you to complete and return this form to Red Cross before 30 April 2024 as your commitment to pledge a minimum donation of $500 for one year of RWL membership (tax-deductible and due by 30 May 2024). By submitting this form, you agree to the Terms of Reference when the terms are finalised in March 2024. If your donation is not paid by 30 May 2024, you may still become a Member of the RWL but will not have the same privileges as a Founding Member.

You also agree to the collection of personal information as outlined in the Australian Red Cross Privacy Policy found at <https://www.redcross.org.au/privacy/> in connection with your application.
